

BSB80320 Graduate Diploma of Strategic Leadership

National Qualification Code: BSB80320

Course Duration: 12 months

Target students: Domestic and non-CRICOS international students

Delivery Mode: Workplace or distance training

Delivery Sites: Sydney, Melbourne and surrounding areas

Start Dates: Anytime.

Course Description

This qualification reflects the role of individuals who apply advanced knowledge and skills in a range of strategic leadership and management roles.

Individuals at this level make high level autonomous decisions and use initiative and judgement to plan and implement a range of leadership and management functions in varied contexts. They have full responsibility and accountability for personal outputs and for the work or function of others.

They use cognitive and creative skills to review, critically analyse, consolidate and synthesise knowledge, in order to generate ideas and provide solutions to complex problems. They use communication skills to demonstrate their understanding of theoretical concepts and to transfer knowledge and ideas to others.

Entry Requirement

- English Proficiency:
 - Domestic students: Must pass the Language, Literary and Numeracy (LLN) Test. Exemptions are considered upon request.
 - International students: Please refer to the notes on Page 3 for more details.

Delivery Mode

We offer a blended delivery mode, including direct training via telephone or Teams meetings, and workplace training and assessment. The program is designed based on your study commitment and is divided into four training periods. The training program may be reviewed at any time or at the end of each period. Capable students can complete the course faster.

For each unit of competency, workplace students will spend 35 to 45 hours on self-study, up to 4 hours of theoretical training with your appointed UPC trainer, and 35 hours of practical training with your workplace supervisor, followed by assessments.

For distance students, you will spend 35 to 45 hours on self-study, up to 4 hours of direct contact with your appointed UPC trainer, and then complete and provide evidence of your assessment.

Assessment Method

Assessments are competency-based. The theoretical component of each unit is assessed in the form of written assignments, case studies, research projects, etc. while the practical component is assessed in a simulated environment where the conditions are typical of those in the real business world.

Course Completion

Upon successful completion of all 8 units of competency of this course, you will receive the Australian nationally recognised qualification of the BSB80320 Graduate Diploma of Strategic Leadership which includes two documents, the Testamur and the Record of Results. If you do not complete all required 8 units, you will be issued a Statement of Attainment showing all units of competency that you have successfully completed.

Pathways

The BSB80320 is a Level 8 qualification within the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) and is recognized by all AQF colleges. Upon successful completion of this qualification, you are eligible to pursue a Bachelor's degree at universities or higher education providers. (Please refer to the course articulation information on the UPC website).

Typical Timetables

The training program is divided into four training periods, separated by breaks. Each period consists of 2 units of competency.

The duration of the program varies from 9 to 24 months, depending on your study commitment. If you do not complete the program within 24 months, you will need to re-enrol in the course.
